Have a safe and fun Memorial Day Weekend!

Can you believe it's almost Memorial Day Weekend? That means a well-deserved break is just around the corner, and we couldn't be more excited for you to enjoy it!

When we return to school on Tuesday, May 27th, we'll be heading into the last twelve school days of the year. Let's come back refreshed, refocused, and ready to finish strong and work hard! We've made incredible progress this year, and with just a little more effort, we can all achieve amazing things.

A Note from the 8th Grade Parents Planning the 8th Grade Promotion Party

Hello MS parents:

We are nearing 8th grade promotion quickly-June 10th! You will see the sign-up genius below to donate items or your time to help make this a successful event for the 8th graders as they transition to high school.

This is a parent led event and we wanted to start a new tradition of asking 6th and 7th grade parents to help volunteer so the 8th grade parents could focus on spending time with their family members. If you have a 7th grader this is also a great opportunity to see what your event will look like next year.

Life Online and with Social Media!

As we get ready to transition into summer, this is a great time to talk with your child about their online activity and help them focus on the positive, healthy sides of social media. We need to be aware of what our kids are exposed to and protect them from the negative aspects of the online world. You are encouraged to supervise your child's online activity to ensure they're making safe, responsible choices. This guidance is crucial in helping young teens navigate social media and understand the real-world consequences of online behavior.

Talking About Feelings

Pre-teens may not always want to talk about their emotions, but it's important that they do. Encourage them to share their feelings instead of keeping them inside. Remind them that it's okay to ask for help when they need it.

👉 Try This: Have a daily check-in where everyone shares one good thing and one tough thing about their day. This makes it easier for your child to open up.
