

REVENUES FROM LOCAL, STATE AND FEDERAL SOURCES

Federal Impact Funds (Indian)

A. The district will disseminate relevant applications, evaluations, program plans and information related to the district's education program and activities with sufficient advance notice to allow tribes and parents of Indian children the opportunity to review and make recommendations. Materials may be disseminated, for example, by website, mail, email, sent home with children, etc.

B. The district will provide an opportunity for tribes and parents of Indian children to provide their views on the district's educational program and activities, including recommendations on the needs of their children and on how the district may help those children realize the benefits of the district's education programs and activities. As a part of this requirement, the district will:

- Notify tribes and parents of Indian children of the opportunity to submit comments and recommendations, considering the tribe's preference for method of communication, and
- Modify the method of and time for soliciting Indian views, if necessary, to ensure the maximum participation of tribes and parents of Indian children.

Parents of Indian children and the tribe may submit comments directly to the superintendent or designee via email, mail, or telephone at any time during business hours.

C. At least annually, the district will assess the extent to which Indian children participate on an equal basis with non-Indian children in the district's education program and activities. As a part of this requirement, the district will:

- Share relevant information related to Indian children's participation in the district's education program and activities with tribes and parents of Indian children, and
- Allow tribes and parents of Indian children the opportunity and time to review and comment on whether Indian children participate on an equal basis with non-Indian children.
- Share relevant information related to Indian children's participation in the district's education program and activities with tribes and parents of Indian children, and
- Allow tribes and parents of Indian children the opportunity and time to review and comment on whether Indian children participate on an equal basis with non-Indian children.

D. Based upon the results of any assessment or input described in A. through F., the district will determine whether it is necessary to modify its policy and/or procedure.

E. The district will respond at least annually in writing to the comments and recommendations made by tribes or parents of Indian children, and disseminate the responses to the tribe and parents of Indian children prior to the submission of its policy and procedure by the district.

F. The district will provide a copy of its policy and procedure annually to the affected tribe or tribes.

The district will review its policy and procedure annually to ensure that they comply with and are implemented in accordance with 34 CFR § 222.94. If the district determines, after input from the tribe and parents of Indian children, that its policy and procedure do not meet the requirements of this regulation, the district will amend its policy and procedure to conform to those requirements within 90 days of its determination. If the district amends its policy and procedure, it shall, within 30 days, send a copy of the amended policy or procedure to (i) the Impact Aid Program Director for approval; and (ii) the affected tribe or tribes.
